To the Public.
WE, THE UNDERSIGNED, HAVING SEEN the PRIZE CHURN, patented July 31, 1866, and Oct. 8, 1867, by the Prize Churn Company, Springfield, Vermont, and being satisfied that it does its work well, making good nice butter in from 2 to 8 minutes, we recommend it to all as the best Churn in market, to our knowledge.

M. WEYAND.
BEAVER, Aug. [illegible] 1868.

MR. CUNDALL churned for me this morning with his prize churn, he used no hot water or other unusual means of hastening the butter. In three minutes the butter began coming and in about five was ready to take out. Most patent churns are objectionable because so complicated that it requires more time to wash them than it does to churn the butter. This one can be cleaned in less time than the old fashioned dash churn. I regard it as a great improvement, and calculated to save woman much labor.

THE BERKSHIRE PIG.

An Electioneering Anecdote.

BY THE RECLUSE OF BEAVER FALLS.

"The fact is, gentlemen," said one of a party who were enjoying themselves over a glass of wine, and talking politics, "there are mighty few who know how the State of Louisiana was carried by the Whigs during the last Presidential campaign."

"How was it?" asked the party. "Well I'll tell you," said the speaker, who had a sly twinkling of humor in his eye. "During the campaign of '48, when the prominent advocates of Democracy and Whiggery were canvassing the State, one of the distinguished men of each party met by appointment at a small village where the people were nearly equally divided in politics. The Democrat spoke after the Whig, and it was the general opinion that the Democrat had carried the day. After he had concluded his speech, the people were about to disperse, when a tall raw-boned, ugly-looking customer, got upon the stand and said:

"Gentlemen, afore you disperse, I want to say a word or two in reply to that last gentleman that talked."

At first the crowd commenced hissing and hooting, to put him down, but he was 'nt one of the kind to stay put.

"Fellow citizens!" shouted the stranger, in a stentorian voice. I will introduce myself to you as a Kentuckian. [Shouts of hurrah for old Kentucky.] They say that Rome was once saved by the cacklin of geese, but I don't think the hissin' of any of you here, will save Louisiany or elect old Zack!"—This speech was received with rounds of applause and shouts of laughter. He had won the crowd over on his side. They perceived at once, that he was a Character, and they became anxious to hear him.

"Fellow citizens," continued the Kentuckian, "I want a chance, if you will give it to me, to put the gentleman that last talked to you in favor of general Cass, through a course of sprouts. [Laughter, and cries of go on!] Here the stranger put both hands into his coat pockets, and drew out of one the Cleveland Plain-Dealer, and out of the other the Nashville Union, and with a sort of serio-comic expression of countenance said:

"Fellow citizens, mustn't be down on me because my talk is like sawed plank in the rough. It is too late now for me to commence plainin my language, though I once had a pretty smart sprinklin of larnin, but I have always thought that when I was young I collapsed a flue, and a right smart chance of it leaked out." He then read from the Plain-dealer the most strenuous assurances to the Democracy of the North, that Gen. Cass was a Wilmot proviso man, and from the Union assurances just as positive that Gen. Cass was a proslavery man. "Now I am not good at speaking," continued the Kentuckian, but the Michigan man's position puts me in mind of a little circumstance which happened in my neighborhood in Kentucky, some time ago, which I must tell you. You all remember what a perfect mania prevailed some years ago on the subject of Durham calves, Berkshire pigs, south-down sheep &c., &c. Well I had a neighbor by the name of Martin, who was an uncommon clever physician and an importer of fine stock. One day the Doctor stopped to get his horse shod at neighbor Birds the Blacksmiths, who lived about two miles from the Doctor's house. The Doctor commenced talking about his beautiful Berkshire pigs, and told the Blacksmith, in a fit of liberality that he would give him a pig out of the next litter that Sue had. In the course of two months or such a matter, the Doctor called at the shop and told neighbor Bird that "Sue" had had a fine litter, and to send and get his pig. So Bird posts his man, Bob off with his wife's large willow basket to get the pig. Between Bird's and Martin's, Sam Smith, who was a [illegible] kept a little grocery, and [illegible] coming post haste on his master's [illegible] with the basket on his arm, he sung out, "Hello, Bob, where are you going in such a hurry this morning?" "I'se going to Massa Doctor Martin's, to get Massa Tom's Bucksheer pig which Massa Doctor promise Massa Tom, de last time he shod he hos," said the darkey, as he reined in his animal. "Well Bob you must stop as you come back and let me see the pig." "Dat I will Massa Sam," and away he went at the top of old Tom's speed. In less than an hour Bob returned with a genuine swine, and alighting at the grocery he lifted the cover of the basket and to the astonished gaze of the grocery man, who imagined a Berkshire to be something more than a mere hog, exhibited a very beautiful specimen of a jet black pig. An idea struck Sam Smith to play a joke on Bob, and knowing his propensity to imbibe told him to go into the grocery and get a dram. While Bob was gone Smith ran round to the back of the house and got a little black pup, just about the same heft, and took the pig out of the basket and put the pup in. When Bob came out and mounted his nag Smith handed him the basket, and off he went. On arriving at home the Blacksmith asked him if he had got the pig. "Yes Massa, and bery fine pig he be, too;" said Bob, taking up the cover: black as a coal. When to the utter astonishment of Bob and Bird, there lay a black curly puppy. "Is that a Berkshire pig?" asked the Blacksmith in amazement, "why it is a pup, not a pig." "Bress de Lord!" said Bob, "he be pig wen I put him in de basket, but he changed to pup." "Take him back sir," said Bird, highly indignant, "and tell Dr. Martin that I don't want to be fooled with any of his puppies, and if he don't want to give me a Berkshire pig to say so." Bob started back and naturally enough stopped at the grocery to tell the mishap to Sam Smith, who heard him out with a countenance expressive of wonder, at the same time doing his utmost to keep from bursting into fits. "Well get down Bob," said the grocer, "and take another dram." Bob didn't require a second invite, and while he was getting his "bald face" the grocer took the pup from the basket and put back the pig. "Massa Sam," said Bob, coming out to mount his horse, "I mighty obfusticated bout dis yer pig. Fust I tink him pig, I know he be pig fust, but den I know he is pup too. Arnt you certain, Massa Sam, he was pig fust?" asked Bob, as he mounted his critter. "I'll swear to it," replied Smith, and away Bob rode to the Doctors. On arriving at the house Bob delivered his message, but the Doctor, seeming somewhat incredulous as to the truth of the story, Bob, with a flourish of insulted veracity opened the lid of the basket, when lo! there was the identical pig that he had started with. Bob stood transfixed, and with eyes protruding and mouth wide open, exclaimed, "for God! taint no use Massa, taint no use, as sure as de Lord lives, taint. He be pup or pig just as he pleases."

"The crowd became convulsed with laughter and gave the Kentuckian nine rousing cheers. The fellow was hired to tell the same story in all the Democratic parishes, which he did with such powerful effect that the Whigs carried the State.

EQUAL TAXATION.

The national Democratic platform explicitly lays down a general rule for taxation, to take the place of the complicated system now enforced. "It demands," with all emphasis—

"Equal taxation of every species of property, according to its real value."

No exception is made. The great question which has embarrassed all governments and all political economists for generations, and which has never before been solved to the entire satisfaction of anybody, is now settled.

The Democratic wisdom gathered in Tammany Hall on the Fourth of July, has made the subject simple, and has discovered a principle which can be universally applied. Every species of property is to be taxed equally not upon any fictitious appraisement, but upon its real value.

This beautiful law of Democratic finance has not yet been fully elucidated. The orators of Tammany have not obeyed the orders of their chief candidate, and vigorously pressed this subject of taxation. It is quite time they were about it; and if they still avoid it, the Republicans ought to accept Mr. Seymour's advice, and make this great Democratic principle plain to everybody. It is not often that the party gives us such an explicit and intelligible declaration of policy.

The "demand" of the Democratic party implies a thorough change in our present system of taxation. The laws passed by the Republican Congress are far from taxing equally "every species of property, according to its real value." The Republican party strongly prefer not to do so; and, although there are, doubtless, still many mistakes in these laws which Republicans wish to remove, yet the changes they propose to make are not in the direction of "equal taxation of every species of property." On the contrary, it is certain that every Republican of influence in this matter would prefer to retain our present tax laws unchanged, rather than to carry out the Democratic platform.

Here, then, is a distinct issue between the two parties. The Government must raise large amounts of money. Under General Grant the outlay of the nation can hardly be much less than $240,000,000 a year. Under Mr. Seymour, should the Democratic party succeed in regaining power, those who remember Mr. Buchanan's administration will be sure that the outlay will rapidly rise to vastly more than this. The Republican party propose to obtain the money by adjusting taxation so that it shall burden the people as little as possible. The Democratic party propose to do away with all such adjustments, and levy "equal taxation upon every species of property, according to its real value."

For example, the "real value" of a fancy sulky driven in the Central Park, and of a farmer's hay wagon in the country, may be about the same. The Republican party prefers to lay a tax on the former and none on the latter, believing that the vehicle kept for the rich man's pleasure ought to pay rather than that kept for the laboring man's necessity. The Democratic party proposes to tax both equally.

That beautiful chronometer repeater, with independent second-hand and stop, with which [illegible] are timed in Jerome Park, costs just about as much as an average Kansas or Minnesota farm. But the Republican Congress have levied an enormous duty on the watch, equal to at least a good year's entire profits from the farm, and an annual payment besides; while they make the farm free. The Democratic party proposes to tax the farm as much as the watch.

ADDRESS OF THE COUNTY COMMITTEE.

Republicans of Beaver County, the County Committee of your party embrace this last opportunity of urging you to renewed and continued action in the good cause. You did well, you achieved a noble victory on the 13th of October, but that victory is not yet complete. In order that you may reap the full benefit of your efforts then you must again rally to the polls on the 3d day of November, and do well your part in achieving a greater and more glorious victory, a victory that will settle forever the question whether Southern secessionists, traitors and rebels, after appealing to arms, drenching the land in blood, sacrificing the lives of hundreds of thousands of our bravest and best men, and millions of treasure, and being defeated on the field of battle shall control this government; whether they, with the aid of the Democracy of the North, shall, with bloody hands, carry, out their wicked purposes, increase the murders and outrages now perpetrated, and prolong the anarchy and confusion that now reigns almost supreme in some of the States of this Union, or whether loyalty shall prevail and loyal men direct the destinies of our country, giving peace and security to all. Conceal it, explain it, extenuate it as our opponents may this is the real question now before us, and the result of the November election settles it. How important then that every man do his duty in this great crisis. Victory is certain if you but do your duty. But no man should be satisfied with mere victory. Our victory should be so complete, so overwhelming as to crush forever the hopes of treason that yet linger in the hearts of Southern rebels, and the equally base and wicked ambition for place and power that impels the leaders of the Democratic party in the North to unite with them. Relax not your efforts then. Be vigilant. Fail not to be at the polls yourself, and let every man see that our whole vote is cast. Are any indifferent, satisfied that victory is certain without their aid, let them be aroused. But one week more remains for work. Let it be devoted to the cause of your country, and in the peace, security and prosperity of our whole country under the administration of our Government by our glorious standard bearers, GRANT and COLFAX, you will have an abundant reward.

By order of the Committee,
H. HICE, Chairman.

GENERAL SIGEL was unanimously nominated for Register of New York, on Monday, by both wings of the Republican party.

REPUBLICANS, do not relax your energies because you were victorious on Tuesday. Let every man put his shoulder to the wheel and aid in making the majority for Grant and Colfax unprecedented.

REPUBLICANS! do not be idle for the next few days. Rally our forces at once. Make one more on-slaught on the enemy on next Tuesday and a crowning victory will reward your efforts, up then and at them.

VOTE a clean ticket on next Tuesday. Let us give the election officers as little trouble as possible after the polls close on that day. This can be accomplished only by giving them ballots during the day without having scratch or blemish on them. Let us remember this.

BRING in the returns as early on Tuesday evening as possible. Republican headquarters will be at the National Hotel as usual.

SOME one has estimated the population of the world at 1,850,200,000. Of that number the Democrats had about 1,347,000,000 to colonize from, yet they lost Pennsylvania by a handsome minority.

COMPARE your ticket on next Tuesday before voting, with the ticket found at the head of this paper. If the names exactly agree you have a genuine ballot. If there is even a slight difference depend upon it the enemy is trying to impose upon you. Look closely therefore to your tickets, and see that our opponents make nothing by this species of fraud, in this county at last.

BRICK POMEROY goes for Belmont, the chairman of the National Democratic Committee, in this wise:

> Traitor, fool, renegade, tool of a wicked power; uncover your head, take off your shoes, for the place where thou dost stand is holy ground! Your fire will die out, but the bush of Democracy will live for pilgrims to rest under the shade thereof, after turning aside to spit on your grave.

Harmony reigns in the Democratic family—"over the left."

THE cops are continually insisting that Grant can't make a speech, and scolding him for not trying his hand at public talking. We admit that he does not often thrust his views upon public attention, but when he does, he always says something that is worth studying and remembering. A private letter written by him to a friend, a few days ago contains this sentence:

> "This much I wish and this I declare to be my policy—that I hope to live to see the day when such peace and tranquility shall be established in this country that a man may speak his sentiments, no matter what they be; whether it be in California or in Maine, in Florida or Oregon, without molestation or hinderance."

If our Democratic brethren can find any fault with the above sentiment, we would like to see it pointed out.

IS GRANT TO BE ASSASSINATED.

Frank Blair in a New Role.

FRANK BLAIR'S letter to his friend Col. Broadhead gained for him the title of Revolutionist, and the nomination for Vice President at the hands of the Democracy. But these, it seems, do not satisfy Frank's ambition, for he aspires to greater fame as the assassin of Grant. In his St. Louis speech, on Friday evening, he spoke as follows:

"The point to which I desire to bring you is this: That in this struggle we have everything at stake; that it is the final and last struggle for the preservation of free, constitutional government in America; that if we fail in it the Republic fails with us. It becomes a mere appendage of the military chieftain, who is lifted to power in the name of the President but who never will leave the Presidential mansion alive. [Sensation, followed by applause."]

REMEMBER that the Democrats, as soon as they got the power, in the State of Ohio, disfranchised the crippled and wounded soldiers in the Soldiers' Home, at Dayton, and placed those gallant defenders of our country's flag on a par with paupers! Remember, too, that they disfranchised the students in the colleges! Patriotism and intelligence are crimes in the estimation of the Democratic party.

AUGUST BELMONT, the chairman of the National Democratic Committee, has given away to his fears, and issued a pitiable appeal to the people to aid in electing Seymour. He asks the voters of the United States to make one "final struggle to save the constitution" by rallying for the Democratic ticket on the 3d of November. We presume if the 'struggle' is not a success Mr. Belmont intends to disband the Democratic party as a thing of no further use on this mundane sphere. If so, we judge he is about correct in his conclusion.

THE citizen who does not so shape his affairs that he can be surely at home on the day of the Presidential election, is careless of his duty and indifferent to the most vital interests of his country. Whatever else you do, make your presence at home and your vote on that day a matter of moral certainty.—Leave nothing to chance; don't go away, hoping to return in time! Don't leave home at all, if you have the faintest doubt on this point. —Make every other consideration yield to the importance of this, cases of imperative necessity being the only exceptions.

SEYMOUR and his trainers in New York have since the late elections, decided on a change of programme, so far as conducting the canvass on their part is concerned. This change puts Seymour on the stump, with a view of bringing the people to his support by means of "flowery speech." He has accordingly delivered several harangues in New York within the past few days, and we believe he intends to "swing around the circle" in Pennsylvania during the present week. It wont pay Mr. S. The people have determined on voting for the "other man" and nothing that you can now say will deter them from doing so on next Tuesday.

VOTERS of Beaver county! you have heard a great deal said within the past few years about making "treason odious." If you wish now to make it disreputable for a man to have desired his country's destruction during a great civil war, vote for Grant and Colfax, on next Tuesday. They are the representatives of the loyalty of the nation, and their supporters are those who wished the country well in its hour of trial. If, on the other hand, you desire to make "treason respectable" work and vote for Seymour and Blair on 3d inst. They are the representatives of the Lost Cause, and their supporters are those who either sympathized with rebellion or bore arms against the country whose flag they should have sustained. Choose ye between these.

TO THE Democratic party, previous to and during the sessions of the National Convention at New York, Gov. Seymour said: "Your candidate I cannot be." In this he told a falsehood, for in a very short time afterwards he became their candidate and continues to be their candidate still.

In his letter accepting the Democratic nomination for President the Governor told his party friends that his candidacy would not permit him to take part in the then approaching campaign. In this he told another falsehood, for he is now on the stump doing his utmost to secure his own election to office.

Now if a Presidential candidate can tell two such notorious untruths in the short space of three months, how many would he utter during the four years he would fill the Executive chair, provided the people would be so foolish as to place him there?

WE understand that Judge WILLIAMS has signified to Governor GEARY his acceptance of the appointment of Supreme Judge, in place of Judge STRONG, resigned. Judge WILLIAMS is too well known throughout the State to require any words of commendation at this time, but we cannot help regretting the loss his District Court will sustain while congratulating the Supreme Bench on its gain. The Harrisburg State Guard in noticing the acceptance of Judge WILLIAMS, says:

> This must allay the anxiety felt by our friends all over [illegible] State as to what course Judge William[illegible] finally determine upon in view of his appo[illegible]. In making this announcement we d[illegible] this simple tribute to Judge W[illegible] he is destined to make one of [illegible] ablest, most efficient and dignified officers ever clothed in Judicial ermine. Judge Williams, in this crisis in our State and nation, is needed on the bench.

The Harrisburg Telegraph of Thursday says:

> At this crisis of the condition of our affairs both State and Nation, the acceptance of the position by Justice Williams will be hailed with joy by every Union man. He was to have entered upon his duties in the Supreme Court at Pittsburgh to-day.

NOTHING remains to be done but to register in November the decree of October. The election of Grant and Colfax is placed beyond doubt or danger. With their triumph comes order; with an overwhelming majority comes peace; and while the maintenance of order in the rebel States, with force if necessary, is the almost universal demand of the American people, the hope of peace which will not require force, is their dearest wish. A mere majority of the votes of the people, or a bare majority in the electoral college for Grant, gives us the power to keep violence under by the power of the Government; but an enormous vote at the polls will demonstrate the utter folly of continued violence.

A full vote, and its consequence, a mighty majority, is the object of that party which fights this civil battle under the banner, and with the object of "peace." On every vote cast for Grant, rely upon it, the safety of a Union man in the South depends, and the manifestation of power at the polls will render its existence unnecessary hereafter. Our victory is sure, but it is in our power to make it a bloodless one, and while the lives and property of our compatriots in the South are now assured of protection, let us see that this protection shall come from ballots, and not bullets. The issue is in our hands. Another war to protect those who clung to us in our calamity, or a decision at the ballot-box so grand and positive that another war will be unnecessary.

Freemen! a nobler motive never animated a party. A nobler motto than ours never graced a banner, and a nobler leader never before led on a victorious host. One more charge, and an unconditional surrender of the tottering Democracy will protect our land from bloodshed, our national honor from the stain of repudiation, and our form of free government from every danger and shame which our defeat, or mere success, might bring upon us. Forward, then, to another and final victory.—Har. Tel.

THE returns of the election on the 13th show Beaver to be the banner Republican county of this congressional district. In 1866 Geary's majority in the State was over 17,000. This year Hartranft's is about 10,000. An examination of the returns from all the counties show that our reduced majority in the State is chargable in part to almost every county within its limits—that is, they nearly all permitted their majority of this year to fall below that of 1866. Beaver county, we are glad to say suffered her's to drop down less than any other County in the 24th district. In Washington county our majority was reduced 268 votes; in Lawrence 175; in Greene (of course we speak relatively of Greene) 103 votes, and in Beaver only 60 votes. It will be seen from this that while most of her sister counties did well, Beaver did better than the best of them. All honor to her zealous and hard-working Republicans.

Republicans of Beaver county! we bore off the palm at the recent election; let us carry it away again on next Tuesday. There is nothing to hinder us from giving Grant and Colfax a clear majority of 1,000 sure, and probably 1100 in the county. Let us to work then, every man, and see that no Republican voter is permitted to stay at home or away from the polls on next Tuesday.

REPUBLICANS of Chippewa, Hopewell and Borough [illegible] bouts are boasting that they made large gains on you at the election two weeks ago. Show them on next Tuesday that their gains in these townships on the 2d Tuesday of October were but temporary. To do this you must rally your forces without delay. See every doubtful man before the next election. Urge upon him the importance of attending the polls. Entreat him to vote for Grant and Peace, and if necessary provide a carriage and convey him to the election ground yourself. Visit the Republicans that are usually not very prompt in attending elections and induce them to come out early on that day; call upon your young men and exhort them to activity. Stir up the lukewarm everywhere, and make an energetic and united effort to get every Republican voter in your respective townships to the polls before 5 o'clock on next Tuesday afternoon. If you succeed in doing this your fair fame as active and efficient Republicans will be redeemed, and we will have no more Democratic crowing of gains made on you in a political contest. Go to work then at once, and work as you never worked before from now until the polls close on next Tuesday.

A DELEGATION of prominent men from North and South Carolina visited the Secretary of War last week and solicited aid in preventing the horrible murders which are almost hourly committed in these two States by the ex-rebel soldiers of the Confederate army. Judge Hoge, one of the delegates from South Carolina stated that in the western part of that State the average murders per day would reach 15 or 20. The Secretary sympathized with them but stated that he could afford them but little relief at the present time.

The shortest and the only effectual way to relieve the Unionists of the South is to elect Grant and Colfax on next Tuesday. If they are successful on that day the union men of North and South Carolina can "live, move and have a being;" but if they are defeated neither the lives or property of loyal persons will have the least guarantee for an hour's safety. Their success then, means order, peace and the protection of life; their defeat, disorder, violence, and the extermination of every man whose voice is for loyalty and Union.

REPUBLICANS, you have done nobly in the county. The first battle has been won; but you must not rest satisfied with this preliminary victory. Go to work at once in every ward, borough and township, in the county. Ascertain what Republicans were not at the State election; and urge them to attend at the Presidential election; and make them promise to be there and vote. See that those who have not paid their taxes, do so at once. Revise and correct your poll books. Ply the fence men (and there are thousands of them now) with newspapers, documents and argument, and they will quit the doomed party in squads and companies. Do these things, and then see that the entire Republican vote in each election district is polled. We can give one thousand majority in this county with less labor than we gave eight hundred and sixty. Let every man be up and doing. Work from now until election day with a will.

THE Pennsylvania Central Railroad company has neither forgotten nor forgiven Gov. Geary for vetoing some of the projects which it managed to get through the Legislature of this State, during the session of 1867. It has borne him anything but good will ever since that time.

The air in and about Beaver is just now filled with rumors to the effect that that Monopoly meditates the starting of a new Republican paper in this place with a view of throwing the political influence of Beaver County against Governor Geary's renomination in 1869, and likewise to so control the politics of Beaver and Washington counties that none but fast friends of the Pennsylvania Central will receive nominations in the future for either the Assembly or Senate in this District. We shall probably have occasion to advert to this attempt of the Monopoly to control the Republican party of this county and district at some future time. In the meantime we advise our party friends throughout the county to be on the qui vive, lest they be tied hand and foot by that remorseless enemy of Pennsylvania's interests—the Central Railroad company—before they they are fully aware of the fact.

A LETTER dated Yankton, Dakota Territory, October 16th, says: "The Republican candidate for delegate to the XLIst Congress, the Hon. S. L. Spink, and Territorial officers are triumphantly elected, in the face of the most shameless and corrupt use of Federal patronage, the active personal efforts of the officers themselves in every case, accompanied by a free distribution of whisky to all who desired to partake. At least two-thirds of our legislative assembly elect are straight Republicans. This result has been achieved by united action, through organization, and earnest and persistent effort.

War Democrats in Council.

On Wednesday night the War Democrats of New York met in council, at the Cooper Institute, to declare for Grant and Colfax, and take measures that their entire vote be brought out. The meeting was addressed by Hon. Edwards Pierrepont, Hon. Henry G Stebbins, Hon. Henry Nicoll, Hon. Wm. F. Havemeyer, Hon. Francis B. Cutting, Hon. James B. Belford, of Indiana, and others of political and civil distinction. Among the names appended to the call appear Henry Nicoll, Moses Taylor, Edwards Pierrepont, Wm. Cutting, Edward Weston, Wm. F. Havemeyer, Chas. A. Secor, Francis B. Cutting, Chas. F. Blake, Henry G. Stebbins, Frederic De Billier, Richard Berry, David Babcock, John W. Edm[illegible]ls, H. Molton, Joseph Colwell, Prosp[illegible] Wetmore, George Wilkes, Peter Coop[illegible] N Hayward, Thos. F. Carhart, Wm. [illegible] Henry Clews, Alex. T. Stewart, C. V. [illegible]lt, Henry Meyer, Abraham R. V[illegible] [illegible]ardus Boyce, John Wheeler, Chas. [illegible]m, Effingham Townsend Henry D. [illegible], George B. Butler, Edward Haight, Joseph Seligman, Frederic Kuhne, and representatives of nearly all the leading Conservative firms of New York. A prominent feature of the evening was the presence of the Irish War Democrats under the leadership of General Burke, Colonel Page of the Corcoran Legion, Captains Laffin, Nuugent, Lynch of the old Sixty-ninth, and others.

The words of the call itself are an eloquent argument, themselves appealing with peculiar power and effect to the substance and honesty of the nation. Endorsed by the weightiest come with a meaning that will be peculiarly appreciated by business men—men who have property to save, and who want peace that they may make money:

Those of Democratic antecedents, who wish to retain the entire Union upon principles that are just;

Who believe that the debt incurred in suppressing the rebellion is a sacred obligation;

Who insist that the plighted faith of the nation shall not be violated, and that its name and credit shall not be disgraced;

Who desire to treat the States lately in rebellion with lenient justice, but who will not consent to surrender the Government to Southern rebels, still insisting that the rebellion was right, and still boasting of continued devotion to the "Lost Cause;"

Who are opposed to the repudiating doctrines of the New York platform, and to the revolutionary manifesto of one of its candidates;

And who believe that peace, safety and prosperity for the whole country will be secured by the election of Gen. GRANT.

REPUBLICANS of Beaver County! Are you wide awake? Do you realize that although you have aid in gaining a most important victory the [illegible]al struggle comes off next Tuesday?

Up and [illegible] them, then, every one of you! From the [illegible]eran "frosty son of thunder" down to th[illegible]ounding blood of twenty-one years, let a[illegible]e in line for the ballot-box on the 3d of N[illegible]ember. Old and young, young and old, none of your glorious number can be spared, [illegible] you must add numbers to your ranks.

Copper[illegible]ism must on next Tuesday die the politic[illegible]eath. Each of you must be in at that dea[illegible] For in it is the very life and resurrection of our nation insured. The country of Wa[illegible]gton, of Lincoln and of Grant shall there[illegible]ease to be a hissing and a shame on earth.

The dea[illegible] Copperheadism kills Repudiation, kills [illegible]ason, kills the hope for the revival of Sl[illegible]y, and buries in their common grave the [illegible]ies of Union and Liberty.

A quiet [illegible]desperate effort will be made by those [illegible]es next Tuesday to take advantage of our supposed apathy. Republicans of Be[illegible] County! You are thought to be sl[illegible]ep[illegible] after your October victory, sleeping [illegible] and secure. The Copperheads actually [illegible] to make Beaver their banner count[illegible] in [illegible] State for gains to their slimy ranks[illegible] T[illegible] actually think to win a banner flag o[illegible] this count, and wave it in triumph over our [illegible]ds. See that they do it not! See that [illegible]ey [illegible] gained but a further loss. Give them [illegible] thousand majority to crawl to th[illegible] h[illegible] on and hiss over for the next yea[illegible]

[illegible] can it? Bring forth every Republican vote! This is the civil battle-day for the Union! He who falls now to do his duty is [illegible] worthy of the country in which Gettysburg was fought, and he will fall also in the day when sons of Columbia are called to [illegible] in [illegible] before her and be rewarded for their [illegible] in upholding her fair fame before the w[illegible]

[illegible]nsylvania gave a Republican majority at a late election of 9,677. It can easily be increased the 3d of November to 20,000 for Grant [illegible] Colfax. Beaver County Republicans! You must help to make it so. A [illegible] from [illegible] is wanted of over one hundred vo[illegible]. T[illegible] will be no objection if you make it [illegible] hund[illegible]. Come out in your strength [illegible] all the day for Freedom is won. [illegible] bless you for your deeds of that day. [illegible] of you get to the polls early [illegible] before your good deed of helping to [illegible] your country be done.

WEST VIRGINIA ELECTION.

Republican Majority Over 4.000.

Legislature Largely Republican!

Special Dispatch to the Commercial.

WHEELING, WEST VIRGINIA, October 25.

The Republican majority in twenty-seven counties, casting four-fifths of the votes of the State, is forty-two hundred and sixty-seven. The remaining counties will not materially change this. In the First Congressional District, Duvall, Republican, has eight hundred majority. In the Second, McGrew, Republican, twenty-two hundred majority. Returns from six counties of the Third District indicate from eight hundred to one thousand majority for Witcher, Republican. There is from thirty to forty Republican majority on joint ballot in the Legislature, numbering seventy-eight members. The Democratic specials claiming this State are deliberate and persistent lies, intended for effect on the country.

W. P. HUBBARD,
Secretary Republican State Committee.

ARE THEY FORGERIES?

The New York World says: "The radical newspapers have forged speeches, and put them in the mouth of Southern Democrats, by whom they were never uttered."

Is it a forgery that Frank P. Blair, the Democratic candidate for vice President, wrote to Col. James O. Broadhead on the 30th of June:

"There is but one way to restore the Government to the Constitution, and that is for the President elect to declare these acts [of reconstruction] null and void, compel the army to undo its usurpations at the South, disperse the carpet-bag State governments, allow the white people to recognize their own governments, and elect Senators and Representatives?"

Is it a forgery that Wade Hampton said at a Democratic ratification meeting in New York:

"And I want you all to register an oath that when they, ('the white people of the South' without regard to the exceptions of the reconstruction acts) do vote, that these votes shall be counted, and if there is a majority of white votes, that you will place Seymour and Blair in the White House in spite of all the bayonets that shall be brought against them?"

Is it a forgery that Wade Hampton said at his reception in Charleston, that he proposed in the Committee on the Platform in the Democratic Convention to insert the words, "And we declare that the reconstruction acts are revolutionary, unconstitutional and void?" and that he added:

"When I proposed that, every single member of the committee—and the warmest men in it were the men of the North—came forward and said they would carry it out to the end!

Is it a forgery that Mr. C. C. Langdon, delegate to the Democratic Convention, said in a published letter before the fourth of July, that the reconstruction measures are "unconstitutional and, of course, absolutely void," that this would be the chief plank in the Democratic platform; that the Supreme Court, probably at its next term, would so decide; and that he added:

"Then all we want is a President whose views are in accord with that decision, and who has the will and the nerve to do his duty. It will be his duty to enforce the degree of the Court, if need be, at the point of the bayonet?"

Is it a forgery that John Forsyth said in the Mobile Register, speaking of reconstruction:

"And here we may as well say that the people of the South do not intend to submit to that permanent rule, result as the Presidential election may?"

Is it a forgery that Raphael Semms said at Mobile:

"I have come to declare that I have given in my allegiance, heart and soul, to the old flag, provided we can restore the old flag again to be the representative of the principles of the Constitution, which we will be able to effect by the election of Seymour and Blair?"

Is it a forgery that the Charleston Mercury said:

"Peace was made by General Sherman in the spring of 1865, in his terms of capitulation with General Johnston. That was peace and nothing else ever will be peace?"

Is it a forgery that Albert Pike said:

"The South is our land; the North is a foreign and hostile realm......If the old Union cannot be restored, we will hope to see the South independent before we die?"

Is it forgery that General Battle, of the late rebel army, said at the Democratic meeting in Mobile;

"The Democratic party endorses principles for which you battled?

Is it forgery that the Richmond Enquirer says:

"The next Democratic House of Representatives, in case of contest, will recognize, and only recognize, such members as come there under legal constitutions, and that have been adopted by the free consent of the white people of the State?"

Is it a forgery that the Richmond Whig, speaking of the Blair letter, said:

"He declared without any hesitancy, and in terms too clear and decided to be misunderstood, that, were he President, the whole Executive power should be employed to blot out every vestige of radical reconstruction?"

Is it a forgery that Wade Hampton said:

"Try to convince the negro that we are his real friends; but if he will not be convinced, and is still joined to his idols, convince him at least that he must look to these idols whom he serves as his gods, to feed and clothe him. Agree among yourselves, and act firmly on this belief, that you will not employ any one who votes the Radical ticket.

Is it a forgery that Albert Pike, as President of a Democratic club, officially said of Democratic cards of recommendation for colored men;

"We hope that hereafter, when any Democrat desires to employ a colored man in any capacity, he will ask to see his card, and if none is produced will refuse to employ him?"

Is it a forgery that the New York World said of such speeches of Wade Hampton as we have quoted:

"We have found them to be the candid and persuasive utterances of an honest and courageous man?"

And if these are all forgeries, why is it that the Charleston Mercury said:

"Private advices from our most str[illegible] friends of the North request that [illegible] protest against the impudent ex[illegible] have escaped some Southern s[illegible] the adjournment of the National D[illegible] Convention * * * It is questionable whether at this time anything is to be gained by too much reference to things that jar on people's nerves. What we want just now is to win."

If these are not forgeries they show distinctly that the policy of the Democratic party, should it succeed at the polls, will be the forcible overthrow of the governments of the Southern States. That will necessarily produce civil war.

The South Gives it Up.

THE LOUISVILLE COURIER ON THE RESULT—GRANT'S ELECTION CONCEDED.

The Louisville Courier, the ablest rebel Democratic journal published south of the Ohio river, in its issue of October 14th, thus candidly reviews the result of Tuesday's elections:

> The returns came in slowly last night, and although at the hour we write this (2½ A. M.) they still lag, yet sufficient have been received to indicate the defeat of the Democrats in Pennsylvania, Ohio and Indiana. They have made a brave and determined fight, and have gained a few members of Congress, though not to the extent anticipated; and although the majorities against them are not large, yet it is useless to attempt to conceal the fact that the verdict of yesterday virtually decides the Presidential election. Our people must make up their minds to the fact that Grant will be the next President. We earnestly hope that the apprehensions so generally entertained of the evil that will follow this result will not be realized, but that a new era of peace, quiet and prosperity may dawn on the country.

Nullification.

The Democracy are as clearly committed to nullification in the support of Seymour, as were the Democracy years ago, in the support of John C. Calhoun. At the Convention which nominated Seymour, the Democracy passed the following resolution:

"Resolved, THAT WE REGARD THE RECONSTRUCTION ACTS (so called) OF CONGRESS AS USURPATIONS AND UNCONSTITUTIONAL, REVOLUTIONARY, AND VOID."

The convention which passed the above infamous resolve did not contain a single loyal man as a delegate from any of the lately revolted States, the representatives of which were all ex-rebels of distinction, who continued to boast of their devotion to the lost cause, and their hate of the Yankee idea of government. Wade Hampton, the man who led the bloodiest charge made by rebel cavalry against Union troops, and who urged, on more than one occasion, the raising of the black flag, was a delegate from South Carolina, and voted for the nomination of Seymour. Here is Hampton's own construction of the meaning of this resolution, delivered at a mass meeting of the rebel Democracy before he left New York:

"We can have no relief until the Democratic party will come out and pledge itself that the white people of the South shall vote. I want all to register an oath that, when they do vote, their votes shall be counted, AND IF THERE IS A MAJORITY OF WHITE VOTES, THAT YOU WILL PLACE SEYMOUR AND BLAIR IN THE WHITE HOUSE IN SPITE OF ALL THE BAYONETS THAT SHALL BE BROUGHT AGAINST THEM."

After pondering such language, the man who votes for Horatio Seymour for President, is ready to vote for Jeff Davis or Robert E. Lee for any office in the gift of the people of the United States.—State Guard.

ORGANS.

A LEADING EASTERN PAPER SPEAKS AS follows of the great Eureka Organ: There is nothing so humanizing, so beautiful, so elevating as music, and nothing that we heard for many years comes so near the perfection of sweet sounds as the Eureka Organ, made by Shoninger & Co., New Haven Conn. This instrument has the new Vox Humana Stop, which is such addition to the old organs as to enhance their worth fifty fold. This stop creates, by a fan, a trill like unto the warbling of the whole feathered tribe, doing away with the bellowing hoarseness so detrimental to wind instrument. The volume of music it gushes forth is powerful, rich, and full of pleasing melody, such as entrances the senses and intoxicates the ear. No person would think of weariness, where a performer was touching the pearl keys of the Eureka.

These most excellent instruments are for sale only by the agents.

A Dead Cow.—On last Sabbath morning a valuable cow belonging to Prof. Taylor, of this place, was found dead near one of the hydrants in Beaver. It was ascertained that she had eaten a great deal of green corn during the previous day, and going to the hydrant she drank a sufficient quantity of water to kill her.

Oyster Supper, &c., In Rochester.—An oyster, ice-cream supper, &c., will be given in the Town Hall in Rochester, this (Wednesday) evening at 6 P. M. Proceeds for the benefit of the M. E. Church of that place. The supper and company will doubtless be tip-top.

In the Twenty-first Congressional district the conference judges have made two returns, part of the judges declaring Mr. Covode elected and giving him a certificate to the Governor, while another portion have furnished a similar certificate to Hon. H. D. Foster. This adds another to the many contested seats from Pennsylvania.

Frightful Casuality.—On last Saturday one week ago, while Mr. Abner Wolf, of Rochester, this county, was driving across the railroad near Baden the 3 o'clock express train, going west, struck his wagon and killed him instantly. He was about 51 or 52 years of age. He leaves a wife and four children to mourn his sudden death.

The late election secures us a Republican United States Senator from Pennsylvania in place of Hon. Chas. R. Buckalew, Democrat; and another from Indiana in place of Thos. E. Hendricks, Democrat. Dixon, Johnsonite, in Connecticut, will be succeeded by Governor Buckingham, Republican; and Wisconsin will next month supplement Doolittle, another of the same school, by a Radical.

Before the late elections, many Democrats said they could not vote for the Republicans in October, but that they would support Grant in November; and these will be assisted by a great many more who frankly admit that further opposition to the Great Captain is simply silly partizanship. The common sense of such men will next month do what common gratitude failed to effect last week.

Serious Accident.—On the 18th inst., a serious accident happened to Mr. John Douglass, of Brighton Tp. He was on horseback, near Darlington, this county, when the animal took fright, throwing him off and one of his feet remaining in the stirrup, he was dragged a distance of 30 or 40 rods, when his boot pulled off, and left him laying on the ground. He was soon after discovered, and kindly cared for. Mr. D. was badly hurt, but is now recovering slowly.

Inquire of Wm. A. Wallace, Philadelphia, Pa.

The N. Y. Sun expresses itself concerning Seymour and Blair thus deliberately:

"Seymour is a good man; a good man to live at Utica; a good authority on watermelons; he has a large stock of copper on hand, and might go into the copper trade. He is a good candidate to withdraw. He said when he accepted that he could not accept with honor.

"As for Blair—we don't think it is a good season for Blair's; they seem to be troubled with the blights. To give them their due, however, it must be admitted that they don't hurt a party much if they don't belong to it.

The reporter of the Sandusky, O., Register wickedly intercepted the following telegrams the other day:

UTICA, October 14, 1868.

To George H. Pendleton:

As everybody seems to want Grant for President, what do you think of my withdrawing in his favor? It's terrible, and I have wept all night, but I see no better course. Do you-oo oo-oo-oo-oo-boo-boo?

HORATIO SEYMOUR.

CINCINNATI, Oct. 14, 1868.

To H. Seymour:

Don't withdraw. Run now out of pure cussedness, and punish the people by keeping before their sight. If, on the 4th of November, you want proof that you have been a candidate, I will make oath to the fact.

GEORGE H. PENDLETON.

Teachers' Institute.—A convention of teachers of this county was held in Rochester last week; and it is generally conceded that it was the largest and most successful assembly of the kind ever convened in the county. We congratulate Superintendent Whitham in having secured the assistance of such distinguished help from abroad. We are informed that Deputy State Superintendent Coburn was present during a part of the session, and rendered valuable instruction and explanations in regard to our School System and its workings.

Prof. Cooper of the State Normal School was present and is said to be one of the ablest educators of the State, and did much to infuse life and energy into the Institute by his spirited lectures and able instruction given upon the various topics in the most interesting manner. Prof. J. C. Gilchrist, Superintendent of the public schools of Washington county, likewise aided greatly in advancing the work. The Institute was also favored with able lectures from Rev. Shields, Profs. Taylor and Martin, of Beaver. Quite a number of others rendered their valuable aid to make the convention a success, which it was without doubt.

Judge Agnew and the Philadelphia Prothonotary.

[From the Philadelphia Press.]

Judge Agnew, whose noble stand for the right has won for him the gratitude and respect of the Commonwealth, replies to Mr. Snowdon's letter, published to-day in our local columns, in a note which, for perspicuity and precision of thought and language, is a model in itself, and may be said to exhaust the subject. We give it the prominence which its merits demand:

BEAVER, Oct. 14, 1868.

My Dear Colonel: I have received your reply of the 10th inst., to my letter of the 8th. If, as you say, the practice relating to naturalization of aliens, which in mine I had disapproved as irregular, was "approved" by my two brothers lately holding the Nisi Prius, and if you acted under the "direction" of the Judge who held the court, I have nothing more to say on that point. It would be improper, in a letter to a clerk, to comment on the rulings of a member of the [illegible] can now only regret, if your statement be [illegible] practice I had condemned is brought home [illegible] to ourselves.

Waiving that, I am constrained to say that your explanation of the rush of naturalization papers through our court is not satisfactory. It is wholly immaterial whether the true average per paper be twenty-five or thirty-five seconds, this momentary period being wholly inadequate to any intelligible understanding and determination of the case. The petition must be opened and read, or its contents stated to the Judge. If there be a previous declaration or intention, the certified copy from the record must be examined and the Judge satisfied of its character. One oath is to be administered to the applicant, and another to the witness the jurats thus doubling the number of the petitions. The Judge must then form his opinion in each case on the evidence of residence, moral character and fitness of the applicant, his attachment to the principles of the Constitution, and right disposition to the good order and happiness of this country. But, in order to dispose of the great number of cases run through so hurriedly, you inform me that five or more persons were engaged in the business, and that this would give three minutes of time to each case. That would do if it belonged to each subordinate or tipstaff to decide, and he were qualified by learning and capacity to do so; but you forget, or omit to mention, that as the court has but one Judge and one Prothonotary, a single person necessarily must examine and pass upon every case, and, therefore, each must be examined and determined in the twenty-five or thirty-five seconds of time. You consequently either permitted the subordinates and tipstaves to decide upon the admission to citizenship, or suffered some of the cases to pass through without a determination.

As to your fees, it is a matter of no moment whether they were paid or secured by card, that circumstance having been mentioned as an element in the consumption of the brief period of time, and not as important in itself.

Of course I did not expect you would discuss with me the powers of the court or its officers, but I reminded you that naturalization is a judicial question, because as a lawyer (and the prothonotaries of the Supreme Court are chosen from the bar) you would know that the question is not an open one, it having been decided in Rump vs. Commonwealth, 6 Casey, 475, by our court, the bench then being composed of Lowary, C. J., and Justices Woodward, Thompson, Strong, and Porter. It had long before been settled by the Supreme Court of the United States, in 4 Peters, 407. As a lawyer, I supposed you would readily comprehend what is implied in a judicial act, and, thus perceive how far your practice had departed from the appropriate character of a judgment of the court. It is unnecessary to add more.

I am, with great respect, truly yours, &c.,

DANIEL AGNEW.

Col James Ross Snowdon, Prothonotary Supreme Court, Philadelphia.

The Editor.—A schoolboy's composition on "The Editor" ran as follows, in a school not far from Cincinnati:

"The editor is one of the happiest animals in the world. He can go to the circus, afternoon and evening, without paying a cent; also, to inquests and hangings. He has free tickets to picnics and strawberry festivals, gets wedding cakes sent him, and sometimes gets a licking, but not often, for he can take things back in the next issue, which he generally does. I never knew but one editor to get lickt. His paper busted that day, and he couldn't take anything back. While other folks have to go to bed early, the editor can sit up late every night and see all that is going on. The boys think it's a big thing to hang on till 10 o'clock. When I am a man I mean to be an editor, so I can stay out late of nights. Then that will be bully. The editor don't have to saw wood or do any chopping, except with his scissors. Railroads get up excursions for him, knowing if they didn't he'd make them get up and git. In politics he don't care much who he goes for, if they are on his side. If they ain't he goes for 'em any way; so it amounts to nearly the same thing. There is a great many people trying to be editors who can't, and some of them have been in the profession for years. If I was asked if I had rather have an education or be a circus rider, I would say, let me be an editor."

Attention—To the Public.—Merchants and Shippers, permit me to state to you that express rates to-day are fully forty per cent cheaper than they were one year ago. This reduction in express rates you can credit to the Merchants Union Express Co. It runs over a greater territory than any other Company, and nearly as much as any two of them. The old Companies have united together and have endeavored to run this Company from the field. They have issued circulars to their agents to take goods at any rates where the Merchant's Union came in contract with them, and to keep their rates up where they do not. Let me call your particular attention to the fact that under the new plan of conducting the package and money business I feel justified in stating that this Company can deliver such property sooner than any other Company and with greater safety. This company also pledges itself to a prompt settlement of damages, a speedy payment of all loses, and immediate attention to the orders or requests of its patrons.

Will He Make His Word Good?—A leading Democrat, and by the way a very respectable citizen of Bridgewater, declared in the presence of quite a number of persons a few weeks ago that if Crawford was beaten "eight hundred votes in this county" he would "never vote again as long as he lived." Well the election has passed off and Crawford came out minus 842. The question now is will the aforesaid Democrat make good his word, or will he, in true Democratic style, "go back" on his repeatedly declared purpose? We hope not. His standing as a man forbids this imputation on his veracity.

Distressing and Fatal Accident at Rochester Depot.—On Wednesday evening Oct 23d, Mr. Adam Kress of Phillipsburg, on getting off the New Brighton accommodation was caught, and the cars passed over his left leg below the knee, rendering amputation necessary, which operation was promptly performed, above the knee, by Dr. J. C. Levis, assisted by Dr. Rose. He survived the operation about one-half hour.

A terrible fatality appears to have surrounded this worthy young man. Early in life he lost his right arm near the shoulder. His wife and family are deeply distressed at this sudden dispensation. On Sunday his remains were buried in the village grave yard at Phillipsburgh, attended by almost the entire community.

Beware of Bogus Tickets.—Republicans be watchful and [illegible] bogus tickets. Some of you were imposed upon by fraudulent ballots two weeks ago. See that the trick is not made a success again. Remember that you do not vote directly for Grant and Colfax, but for twenty-six electors. These, if elected, vote for the candidates of our choice. It will be an easy matter therefore for some "Democratic" scoundrel to print a ticket with the electoral ticket except one or two names and then "shove" it out upon the people. Be on the lookout for tricks of this kind. Compare your ballot before voting [illegible] the names found at the head of this paper. [illegible] you can you be sure of voting a genuine Re[illegible]

Illuminate.—Those of our subscribers who receive their papers this (Tuesday) evening, must not forget to illuminate their homes, offices, &c. to-night. A great many of our Pittsburgh friends will be in the torchlight procession to-night (Tuesday,) and let us show them by our illuminated buildings that we are heart and soul with them in their efforts for Grant and Peace.

The candles, we presume, will be lighted about 9 P. M.

Also, that in the fourth section of the act of Assembly entitled "An Act relating to executions, and for other purposes," approved April 16, 1840, it is enacted that the aforesaid 13th section "shall not be so constructed as to prevent any militia officer or borough officer from serving as judge, inspector or clerk at any general or special election in this Commonwealth."

Also, that in the 61st section of said act it is enacted that "every general and special election shall be opened between the hours of eight and ten in the forenoon, and shall continue without interruption or adjournment until seven o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed."

The general, special, city, incorporated district and township elections shall be conducted by inspectors and judges elected as aforesaid, and by clerks appointed as hereinafter provided.

"No person shall be permitted to vote at any election as aforesaid but a white freeman of the age of twenty one years or more, who shall have resided in this State at least one year, and in the election district where he offers to vote at least ten days immediately preceding such election, and within two years paid a State or county tax, which shall have been assessed at least ten days before the election; but a citizen of the United States who has previously been a qualified voter of this State, and removed therefrom and returned, and who shall have resided in the election district and paid taxes as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote after residing in this State six months Provided, That white freemen, citizens of the United States, between the ages of twenty-one and twenty-two, and having resided in the election district ten days as aforesaid, shall be entitled to vote, although they shall not have paid taxes."

"No person shall be permitted to vote whose name is not contained in the list of taxable inhabitants, furnished by the Commissioners, unless first, he produces a receipt for the payment within two years of a state or county tax, assessed agreeably to the constitution, and give satisfactory evidence, either on his own oath or affirmation or on the oath or affirmation of another, that he has paid such a tax, or on failure to produce a receipt shall make oath of the payment thereof; or second, if he claims a vote by being an elector between the ages of twenty-one and twenty two years, he shall depose on oath or affirmation that he has resided in the State at least one year before his application, and make such proof of his residence in the district as required by this act, and that he does verily believe from the accounts given him that he is of the age aforesaid, and give such other evidence as is required by this act; whereupon the name of the person so admitted to vote shall be inserted in the alphabetical list by the inspectors, and a note made opposite thereto by writing the word "tax," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of having paid tax, or the word "age," if he shall be admitted to vote by reason of such age; and shall be called out to the clerks, who shall make the like notes in the list of voters kept by them.

"In all cases where the name of the person claiming to vote is not found on the list furnished by the commissioners and assessors, or his right to vote whether found thereon or not, is objected to by any qualified citizen, it shall be the duty of the inspectors to examine such person on oath as to his qualifications, and if he claims to have resided within the State for one year or more, his oath shall not be sufficient proof thereof, but he shall make proof thereof by at least one competent witness, who shall be a qualified elector that he has resided within the district for more than ten days next preceding said election, and shall also himself swear that his bona fide residence in pursuance of his lawful calling is within the district, and that he did not remove into said district for the purpose of voting therein.

"Every person qualified as aforesaid, and who shall make due proof, as required, of his residence and payment of taxes as aforesaid, shall be admitted to vote in the township, ward or district in which he shall reside.

"If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of an election under this act from holding such election or use or threaten any violence to any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window or avenue to any window where the same may be holding, or shall riotously disturb the peace at such election, or shall use or practice any intimidating threats, force or violence, with design to influence unduly or overawe any elector or to prevent him from voting or to restrain the freedom of choice such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and imprisonment for any time not less than one month nor more than twelve months, and if it shall be shown the court where the trial of such offence shall be had, that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or the township where the said offence was committed, and not entitled to vote therein, then on conviction he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years."

"It shall be the duty of the several assessors, respectively, to attend at the place of holding every general, special or township election, during the time said election is kept open, for the purpose of giving information to the inspectors and judges, when called on, in relation to the right of any person assessed by them to vote at such elections, or such other matters in relation to the assessment of voters as the said inspectors or either of them, shall from time to time require.

If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within this Commonwealth or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereof or by any printed or written advertisement, challenge or invite any person or persons to make such bet or wager, upon conviction thereof, he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount so offered to be bet.

If any person not by law qualified, shall fraudulently vote at any election in this Commonwealth, or being otherwise qualified, shall vote out of his proper district, or if any person knowing the want of such qualifications, shall aid, or procure such persons to vote, the persons so offending shall, on conviction, be fined in any sum not exceeding two hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not less than three months.

If any person shall vote at more than one election district or otherwise fraudulently fold and deliver to the inspector two tickets together, with the intention to vote illegally, or shall vote the same, or if any person shall advise or procure another to do so, he or they so offending shall, on conviction be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned for any term not less than three nor more than twelve months.

If any person not qualified to vote in this Commonwealth agreeably to law, (except the sons of qualified citizens) shall appear at any place of election for the purpose of issuing tickets, or of influencing the citizens qualified to vote, he shall, on conviction, forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offence, and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding three months.

The Howe Sewing Machines

ARE THE

OLDEST ESTABLISHED

OF ANY IN THE WORLD !

THEY BEING THE FIRST SEWING MACHINES ever made, and have been manufactured continually under the supervision of the original inventor,

Elias Howe, Jr.,

Since their introduction 1845. The improvements upon these machines made within the last two years and their rapidly growing popularity attests the fact that they have reached the very acme of perfection, and that they are not only the oldest established but the best in the world.

These machines do perfect work upon all fabrics whether fine or coarse, making a stitch; alike, the invention of Mr. Howe alike upon both of the fabric, Sewed. The tensions, new, novel and unvarying, can be adjusted to any degree of tightness, and after being adjusted do not require changing, except for different threads.

To those who have used the Howe Machine, it is not necessary for us to speak; and we would only add to others who wish a perfect machine to be sure and see these machines before buying any other. Send for circular. Applications for agencies must be addressed to

ROCHESTER FOUNDRY,

ANDERSON, ARBUCKLE & CO.

MANUFACTURERS OF MACHINE CASTINGS, Railway Track and Car Castings, Agricultural Implements, Engine and all other Castings made at a first class Foundry. Also, Stoves, Grate Fronts, Grate Bars, Liners Sash, Weights, Hollow-Ware, Kettles, Iron Fence, and all other Castings called for, on short notice and of the very best metal.

Also, J. J. Anderson's justly celebrated New Cook Stove for Coal and Wood, which took the

First Premium

At the State Fair recently held at Pittsburgh. This Stove combines many new and important principles, which place it far in advance of all others now in use. Some of the merits claimed for it by the Inventor, are Heavy Metal, Well Proportioned, Beauty of Style and Finish, Ease of Draft, Easily Kept Clean, Requires but little Fuel, and the

BEST BAKER EXTANT.

All orders thankfully received and promptly filled.

We Call Attention to the Following Statements:

While living in the East, I used several of the most Celebrated Cooking Stoves made in that part of the country, and on my arrival here, I was recommended to purchase the Crystal Palace Stove, (also invented by Mr. Anderson) as being the best. I did so, and used it with good satisfaction. When I saw Mr. Anderson's new Stove, I was attracted by its neat appearance, and on examining its Oven and interior arrangements, found it possessed many advantages over all I had seen. I purchased, and have one now in use. We consider it superior to any we have ever used. It is all the Inventor claims, and we think, all that could be desired in a Cooking Stove.

CAPT. GILBERT PENDLETON.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 21st.

Having one of Mr. Anderson's new Stoves in use, I can fully endorse Capt. Pendleton's statement.

JOHN H. WHISLER.

Having one of Anderson's new Stoves in use, I can fully endorse the above recommendation.

J. WOODRUFF.

Having one of Mr. Anderson's new Stoves in use, we are fully satisfied with its good qualities in all respects.

JOSEPH IRVIN AND WIFE.

ROCHESTER, Nov. 25th.

Having kept house for a long time, and used a great number of Cook Stoves of different patterns and styles, I consider J. J. Anderson's new Stove, in point of economy in fuel, ready cooking and baking for its size, superior to any we have used, and cheerfully recommend it, believing it will render entire satisfaction.

CHAS. LUKINS.

We have one of Mr. J. J. Anderson's new Stoves, manufactured at the Rochester Foundry, and having given it a fair trial, we find it comes fully up to all that has been claimed for it. It heats very rapidly, uses but little fuel, and is a most excellent baker. Mr. Anderson may congratulate himself on having achieved quite a triumph in the line of Cooking Stoves.

Very respectfully,

Beaver, Nov. 23d, 1867. J. S. [illegible]
